Kim,

To a super super nice girl that I'm beging to know better as the days go by. Good luck in the 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th grade. Kim with your smile it makes my day much much nicer. Kim if you weren't around this would have not been enjoyable as it has. To bad this year is ending so fast. Kim your a fox and you could become a modle. I heard a super horse rider. I hope you make it big in it. I hope you enjoy this summer as much as I plan on enjoying it. I'm sorry for the spelling mistakes I made in this note. Best Wishes always. Good luck and have fun all the rest of your life. S.L. I'm ever down all I have to

A year for us means that junior high school is something we should remember. Not only the fun times and our friends, but our problems we coped with too. We learned the responsibility of life. We all realize how much we mean to each other. Not just as classmates, but as good friends that we will never forget.

THE GONG SHOW

The Letterman's Club sponsored a Gong Show for the student body. We based our show on the popular TV "talent" show. The show took place during the last hour of the day. The teachers and student body really enjoyed the show. Pictures: 1-Mr. Hibbler acted as host for the show. 2-Annette Wascavage and Lori Muter displayed a fine pantamine act. 3-This act remained a mystery until their hoods were removed. 4-The people under the hoods were Sandy Benjamin and Shelley Ederer. 5-Darrell Ducre got the worst end of the whip cream act. 6-Todd Ozdych was the winner of the show and was awarded a check for the sum of $5.16. 7-The judges were Mr. Fitzgerald, Miss Williams and Mr. Bird.

CHRISTMAS PARTY: This year Shields Jr. High had a Christmas Party. There was a Santa Claus played by Tim Arnold and his elves, Kathy Lutzke, Rhonda Hanysak, Sue Gustat, and Lori Holsinger. The reindeers were Marie Leaman and Kim Jackson. Each 8th. hour class had a party where everyone played games and ate food.

Santa's elves gather around him as he passes out candy. The elves are Rhonda Hanysak, LOri Holsinger and Kathy Lutzke.

Gail Wilde is posing with Santa. Santa is Tim Arnold.

Shields Jr. High had their judging of the door decorating contest. These are some of the winners. Door #1-Mr. Trombley's door took first place in the comic category. Door #2-Mrs. Debozy's door was the best all around winner. Door #3-Mrs. Jones door took second place in the comic category. Door #4-Mrs. Paeth's door won for the best use of materials. Door #5-Mr. Bowden's door. Door #6-Miss Michalski's door took first place in the traditional category. Door #7-Mrs. Hilton's door. Door #8-Mr. Miller's door took first place in the children's category.

Shields started out slow this year, but finished strong by winning their last 7 straight to close the season at 8-3 and 2nd. in the league for the 3rd. straight year. After 4 years of wrestling, Shields has compiled a remarkable 34-7-1 record. This year's team was led by Steve Wright (18-0-1) and Darrell Burchfield (17-2). Other outstanding records were turned in by Ted Webster (16-3) and Craig Kaufman (15-4), Jerry Flattery (11-6) Jeff Persons (12-4) and John Farrand (12-7-1). Burchfield and Persons were League Champions while the other five finished as League Runner Ups. Outstanding 7th. graders included Mickey Krohn, Troy Pape, Mike Larkin and Ron Mielke.
